BY-LAWS

OFFICES.

1. The registered office shall be in the City of Wilmington, County of New Castle, State of Delaware, and the name of the registered agent in charge thereof is THE CORPORATION TRUST COMPANY.

The corporation may also have offices at such other places within or without the State of Delaware as the board of directors may from time to time determine or the business of the corporation may require.

SEAL.

2. The corporate seal shall have inscribed thereon the name of the corporation, the year of its organization and the words "CORPORATE SEAL, DELAWARE".

STOCKHOLDERS' MEETINGS.

3. Meetings of stockholders may be held at such place within or without the State of Delaware as shall be determined from time to time by the board of directors.

4. The annual meeting of the stockholders shall be held on the fourth Wednesday of April in each year, if not a legal holiday, and if a legal holiday, then on the next secular day following, at ten o'clock in the forenoon (or on such other date or at such other time as the board of directors may determine) when they shall elect by plurality vote by ballot a board of directors and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting.

5. Written notice of the annual meeting shall be mailed to each stockholder entitled to vote thereat at such address as appears on the books of the corporation, at least ten (but not more than fifty) days prior to the meeting.

6. Special meetings of the stockholders, for any purpose or purposes, unless otherwise prescribed by statute or by the certificate of incorporation, may be called by the chief executive officer of the corporation, and shall be called by the president or secretary upon resolution of a majority of the entire board of directors, or at the request in writing of a majority of the entire board of directors. Such request shall state the purpose or purposes of the proposed meeting. Special meetings of holders of preferred stock held pursuant to the provisions of Section 10 of Article Fourth of the certificate of incorporation may be called in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (c) of said Section 10.

7. Written notice of a special meeting of stockholders, including a special meeting for the purpose of amending the certificate of incorporation, stating the time and place and purposes thereof shall be mailed, postage prepaid, at least ten but not more than fifty days before such meeting, to each stockholder entitled to vote thereat at such address as appears on the books of the corporation.

8. (A) At an annual meeting of the stockholders, only such business shall be conducted as shall have been properly brought before the meeting. To be properly brought before an annual meeting, business must be (1) specified in the notice of meeting (or any supplement thereto) given by or at the direction of the board of directors, (2) otherwise properly brought before the meeting by or at the direction of the board of directors, or (3) otherwise properly brought before the meeting by a stockholder. For business to be properly brought before an annual meeting by a stockholder, the stockholder must have given timely notice thereof in writing to the secretary of the corporation. To be timely, a stockholder's notice must be delivered to or mailed and received at the principal executive offices of the corporation, not less than 60 days nor more than 90 days prior to the meeting; provided, however, that in the event that less than 70 days' notice or prior public disclosure of the date of the meeting is given or made to stockholders, notice by the stockholder to be timely must be so received not later than the close of business on the 10th day following the day on which such notice of the date of the annual meeting was mailed or such public disclosure was made. A stockholder's notice to the secretary shall set forth as to each matter the stockholder proposes to bring before the annual meeting (1) a brief description of the business desired to be brought before the annual meeting and the reasons for conducting such business at the annual meeting, (2) the name and address, as they appear on the corporation's books, of the stockholder proposing such business, (3) the class and number of shares of the corporation which are beneficially owned by the stockholder, and (4) any material interest of the stockholder in such business. Notwithstanding anything in the by-laws to the contrary, no business shall be conducted at an annual meeting except in accordance with the procedures set forth in this by-law 8(A). In the event that a stockholder seeks to bring one or more matters before an annual meeting, the board of directors shall establish a committee consisting of non-management directors for the purpose of reviewing compliance with this by-law 8(A); provided, however, that if the business to be brought before the meeting by a stockholder relates to the removal, replacement or election of one or more directors, the secretary of the corporation shall appoint two or more inspectors, who shall not be affiliated with the corporation, to act in lieu of such committee to review compliance with this by-law 8(A). If the committee or the inspectors (as the case may be) shall determine that a stockholder has not complied with this by-law 8(A), the committee or the inspectors (as the case may be) shall direct the chairman of the annual meeting to declare to the meeting that business was not properly brought before the meeting in accordance with the provisions of this by-law 8(A); and the chairman shall so declare to the meeting and any such business not properly brought before the meeting shall not be transacted.

(B) Only persons who are nominated in accordance with the procedures set forth in this by-law 8(B) shall be eligible for election as directors. Nominations of persons for election to the board of directors of the corporation may be made at a meeting of stockholders by or at the direction of the board of directors or by any stockholder of the corporation entitled to vote for the election of directors at the meeting who complies with the notice procedures set forth in this by-law 8(B). Such nominations, other than those made by or at the direction of the board of directors, shall be made pursuant to timely notice in writing to the secretary of the corporation. To be timely, a stockholder's notice shall be delivered to or mailed and received at the principal executive offices of the corporation not less than 60 days nor more than 90 days prior to the meeting; provided, however, that in the event that less than 70 days' notice or prior public disclosure of the date of the meeting is given or made to stockholders, notice by the stockholder to be timely must be so received not later than the close of business on the 10th day following the day on which such notice of the date of the meeting was mailed or such public disclosure was made. Such stockholder's notice shall set forth (1) as to each person whom the stockholder proposes to nominate for election or re-election as a director, (a) the name, age, business address and residence address of such person, (b) the principal occupation or employment of such person, (c) the class and number of shares of the corporation which are beneficially owned by such person and (d) any other information relating to such person that is required to be disclosed in solicitations of proxies for election of directors, or is otherwise required, in each case pursuant to Regulation 14A under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (including without limitation such person's written consent to being named in the proxy statement as a nominee and to serving as a director if elected); and (2) as to the stockholder giving the notice, (a) the name and address, as they appear on the corporation's books, of such stockholder and (b) the class and number of shares of the corporation which are beneficially owned by such stockholder. At the request of the board of directors, any person nominated by the board of directors for election as a director shall furnish to the secretary of the corporation that information required to be set forth in a stockholder's notice of nomination which pertains to the nominee. No person shall be eligible for election as a director of the corporation unless nominated in accordance with the procedures set forth in this by-law 8(B). In the event that a stockholder seeks to nominate one or more directors, the secretary shall appoint two inspectors, who shall not be affiliated with the corporation, to determine whether a stockholder has complied with this by-law 8(B). If the inspectors shall determine that a stockholder has not complied with this by-law 8(B), the inspectors shall direct the chairman of the meeting to declare to the meeting that a nomination was not made in accordance with the procedures prescribed by the by-laws; and the chairman shall so declare to the meeting and the defective nomination shall be disregarded.

(C) (1) Whenever any action is required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of stockholders of the corporation, unless the certificate of incorporation otherwise provides, and subject to the provisions of clauses (2) and (3) of this by-law 8(C), the action may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote, if a written consent setting forth the action so taken shall have been signed by the holders of outstanding stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted; provided, however, that prompt notice of the taking of corporate action without a meeting and by less than unanimous written consent must be given to those stockholders who have not consented in writing.

(2) The record date for determining stockholders entitled to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting shall be fixed by the board of directors of the corporation. Any stockholder of record seeking to have the stockholders authorize or take corporate action by written consent without a meeting shall, by written notice, request the board of directors to fix a record date. Upon receipt of such a request, the secretary shall place such request before the board of directors at its next regularly scheduled meeting, provided, however, that if the stockholder represents in such request that he intends, and is prepared, to commence a consent solicitation as soon as is permitted by the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the regulations thereunder and other applicable law, the secretary shall, as promptly as practicable, call a special meeting of the board of directors, which meeting shall be held as promptly as practicable. At such regular or special meeting, the board of directors shall fix a record date as provided in Section 213(a) (or its successor provision) of the Delaware General Corporation Law. Should the board fail to fix a record date as provided for in this clause (2), then the record date shall be the day on which the first written consent is expressed.

(3) In the event of the delivery to the corporation of a written consent or consents purporting to represent the requisite voting power to authorize or take corporate action and/or related revocations, the secretary of the corporation shall provide for the safekeeping of such consents and revocations and shall, as promptly as practicable, engage nationally recognized independent inspectors of elections for the purpose of promptly performing a ministerial review of the validity of the consents and revocations. No action by written consent and without a meeting shall be effective until such inspectors have completed their review, determined that the requisite number of valid and unrevoked consents has been obtained to authorize or take the action specified in the consents, and certified such determination for entry in the records of the corporation kept for the purpose of recording the proceedings of meetings of stockholders.

9. At each meeting of the stockholders every stockholder having the right to vote shall be entitled to vote in person, or by proxy appointed by an instrument in writing subscribed by such stockholder and bearing a date not more than one year prior to said meeting. Each stockholder shall have one vote for each share of stock having voting power, registered in his name on the books of the corporation on the record date fixed for such meeting, or, if no record date has been fixed, on such date as may be provided for by law. The vote for directors and, upon the demand of any stockholder, the vote upon any question before the meeting, shall be by ballot.

10. The holders of a majority of the stock issued and outstanding, and entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall be requisite and shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of the stockholders for the transaction of business except as otherwise provided by law, by the certificate of incorporation, or by these by-laws. If, however, such majority shall not be present or represented at any meeting of the stockholders, the stockholders entitled to vote thereat, present in person or by proxy, shall have power to adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until the requisite amount of voting stock shall be present. At such adjourned meeting at which the requisite amount of voting stock shall be represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally noticed.

11. At each meeting of stockholders the presence or lack of a quorum shall be ascertained and all voting by ballot shall be conducted by two inspectors appointed for the purpose by the board of directors or, if not so appointed, designated by the meeting. If for any reason any of the inspectors previously appointed shall fail to attend or be unable to serve, a replacement shall be appointed in like manner. The inspectors shall decide upon the qualifications of the voters and the validity of proxies, report on the presence or lack of a quorum, take charge of the ballots at said meeting, and after the balloting thereat on any question shall count the ballots cast thereon and shall report the result in writing to the secretary of the corporation or to the chairman of the meeting.

12. A complete list of the stockholders entitled to vote at any meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, giving the address of each, and the number of voting shares held by each, shall be prepared by the treasurer. Such list shall be open to the examination of any stockholder for any purpose germane to the meeting during ordinary business hours for a period of at least ten days prior to the meeting, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held and which place shall be specified in the notice of meeting or, if not so specified, at the place where said meeting is to be held, and the list shall be produced and kept at the time and place of meeting during the whole time thereof, and subject to the inspection of any stockholder who may be present.

DIRECTORS.

13. (A) The property and business of this corporation shall be managed by its board of directors. The number of directors shall be no less than 8 nor more than twelve, as determined from time to time by the board of directors, but no reduction in the number of directors shall terminate the office of any director prior to the first annual meeting of the stockholders subsequent to his election at which directors are elected except with the written consent of such director, and provided further that the number of directors may be increased by action of the holders of preferred stock as contemplated in by-law 13(B), and that no reduction in the number of directors shall be in violation of the provisions of by-law 13(B). Except to the extent otherwise provided in the certificate of incorporation or the by-laws, they shall be elected at the annual meeting of the stockholders, and each director shall be elected to serve until his successor shall be elected and shall qualify. No person who has attained the age of sixty-five shall be initially elected to the board of directors. No director shall be re-elected as a member of the Board after he or she has reached his or her 72nd birthday, except if his or her nomination for re-election has been approved in each instance by a majority of the other directors of the corporation. Additionally, no former Chief Executive Officer of the corporation shall be re-elected as a member of the Board after he or she has reached his or her 65th birthday, except if his or her nomination for re-election has been approved in each instance by a majority of the other directors of the corporation, and in no event shall he or she be re-elected after he or she has reached his or her 68th birthday.

(B) So long as any preferred stock shall be outstanding and there shall exist a "default period" as defined in paragraph (a) of Section 10 of Article Fourth of the certificate of incorporation, the holders of the preferred stock, voting as a class, irrespective of series, shall have the voting right set forth in said Section 10. At any meeting at which the holders of preferred stock shall exercise such voting right initially during an existing default period, they shall have the right, voting as a class, to elect directors to fill such vacancies in the board of directors, if any, as may then exist up to such number of directors as amounts to the "required proportion" as defined in paragraph (a) of said Section 10, and if the number which may be so elected does not amount to the required proportion, to make such increase in the number of directors as shall be necessary to permit the election by them of the required proportion but no greater increase than shall be necessary for that purpose, and to elect directors to the offices so created. An increase in the number of directors by the holders of preferred stock shall not prevent a subsequent increase or decrease in the number of directors made in any manner provided herein by the board of directors or the holders of preferred and common stock voting irrespective of classes, provided that during a default period no such amendment shall (1) reduce the number of directors elected by the holders of preferred stock to less than the required proportion or (2) terminate the office of a director prior to the first annual meeting of stockholders subsequent to his election at which directors are elected, except with the written consent of such director.

14. The directors may hold their meetings and have one or more offices, and keep the books of the corporation outside of Delaware, at the office of the corporation in the City of New York, or at such other places as they may from time to time determine.

15. In addition to the powers and authority by these by-laws expressly conferred upon it, the board may exercise all such powers of the corporation and do all such lawful acts and things as are not by statute or by the certificate of incorporation or by these by-laws directed or required to be exercised or done by the stockholders.

COMMITTEES.

16. The board of directors shall appoint such committees as are required by these by-laws, and may appoint such committees as are permitted by these by-laws, from among their members.

17. Appointment of committees shall be by the affirmative vote of a majority of the whole board.

18. The board may, but need not, designate one member of each committee as the chairman thereof.

19. The board of directors shall appoint a personnel and organization committee consisting of at least five members, with not less than three members who are not eligible for stock options or incentive awards either at the time when discretion is to be exercised by such committee or at any time within one year prior thereto. Such committee shall consider and monitor the corporation's organization, personnel and compensation policies, practices and implementation. In addition, such committee shall review the compensation of the officers of the company and senior management. Such committee shall also administer such plans under which stock of the corporation is issuable to employees upon exercise of stock options, and all executive incentive compensation plans. The board of directors may provide for an executive incentive compensation committee and a stock option committee. Each such committee shall consist of members of the personnel and organization committee who are not eligible for incentive awards or stock options either at the time when discretion is to be exercised by the members of the said committee or at any time within one year prior thereto, and the chairman of the personnel and organization committee, provided he is not and has not been so eligible. From and after December 14, 1978, all such plans are amended to reflect their administration by such committees. The executive incentive compensation committee and the stock option committee shall have the powers and duties provided in the respective plans and be subject to such provisions and limitations as the board of directors shall from time to time determine.

20. The board of directors shall appoint an audit committee consisting of not less than three members. Such committee shall review internal and external audit conditions, procedures and results and formulate and report to the board of directors policies with regard thereto.

21. The board of directors shall appoint a finance committee consisting of not less than four members. Such committee, if and when appointed, shall consider and take account of the financial affairs of the corporation, and formulate and suggest the financial policies of the corporation for submission to the board of directors.

22. The board of directors may in its discretion appoint from time to time other committees for other purposes or assign additional duties to the existing committees.

23. Each committee shall have the right to determine its own rules of procedure, not inconsistent with the action of the board of directors, or with these by-laws, or with the certificate of incorporation.

24. Vacancies in the committees shall be filled by the board of directors.

25. The time and place of regular meetings of the committees shall be fixed by the board of directors, or if not so fixed, then by the committee, and prompt notice thereof shall be given to each member of the committee, provided however, that the board may authorize the committee or the chairman thereof to postpone any such committee meeting upon two days notice to each member of the committee. Special meetings of the committee may be called by the chairman of the committee or the chief executive officer upon two days notice to each member of the committee. Each such committee may meet at such stated times and places and otherwise upon notice and at such places as it shall provide, except that the finance committee shall meet at least once in each calendar quarter.

26. A majority of the members of each such committee shall constitute a quorum; and in each instance the affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the committee present at the meeting shall be necessary for the adoption of any resolution, except that, upon request of the chief executive officer or the chairman of the committee, any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of such committee may be taken without a meeting, if prior to such action a written consent thereto is signed by all members of such committee, and such written consent is filed with the minutes of the committee. The committee may designate one of its members as secretary of the committee, and may in addition, call upon the secretary or one of the assistant secretaries of the corporation, or any other person, as may be determined by the committee, to perform all or part of the duties of secretary of the committee; and minutes shall be kept of all meetings and proceedings of the committee, which shall be reduced to writing by either the secretary of the committee or the secretary or one of the assistant secretaries of the corporation, or such other person, as the committee shall direct.

27. Each member of each such committee shall continue to be a member thereof at the pleasure of the board of directors and, unless otherwise ordered by the board of directors or otherwise specified in the plan providing for such committee, until such time as he ceases to be a member of the board of directors.

28. The minutes and proceedings of each such committee shall from time to time be reported to the board of directors, as by the board of directors required.

COMPENSATION OF DIRECTORS.

29. The compensation of directors as such shall be fixed by the board of directors but no additional compensation shall be paid to regular employees of the corporation for service as directors or as members of any committee of the board. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to preclude any director from serving the corporation as an officer or in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefor.

30. Pursuant to resolution of the board of directors, members of any one or more committees may receive fixed fees or other compensation for their services.

MEETINGS OF THE BOARD.

31. The newly elected board may meet at such place and time as shall be fixed by the vote of the stockholders at the annual meeting, for the purpose of organization or otherwise, and no notice of such meeting shall be necessary to the newly elected directors, in order legally to constitute the meeting, provided, a majority of the whole board shall be present; or they may meet at such place and time as shall be fixed by the consent in writing of all the directors.

32. Regular meetings of the board may be held without notice at such time and place as shall from time to time be determined by resolution of the board.

33. Special meetings of the board may be called by the chairman of the board or the chief executive officer on three days' notice to each director, either personally or by mail or by telegram; and special meetings shall be called by the president or secretary in like manner and on like notice on the written request of two directors.

34. At all meetings of the board the presence of a majority of the directors then in office shall be necessary and sufficient to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the act of a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum, shall be the act of the directors, except as may be otherwise specifically provided by statute, or by the certificate of incorporation, or by these by-laws. If a quorum shall not be present at any meeting the directors present thereat may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice, other than at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present.

OFFICERS.

35. At its first meeting after each annual meeting of the stockholders the board of directors shall choose a chairman of the board and a president, who shall be directors of the corporation and one of whom shall be designated by the board as chief executive officer of the corporation. At the same meeting the board shall also choose a vice president or vice presidents, one or more of whom may be designated as executive vice presidents, a secretary, a treasurer and a controller. Any two offices other than those of president and secretary may be held by the same person. The chairman of the board shall not be deemed to be a corporate officer unless designated by the board as chief executive officer or otherwise designated by the board as an officer of the corporation.

36. The board of directors may also create and provide for additional offices and prescribe the duties of the respective incumbents thereof and appoint such further officers and agents as it shall deem necessary or advisable, such as assistant secretaries and assistant treasurers, who shall hold their respective offices for such term and shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as shall be determined from time to time by the chief executive officer or the board of directors. By direction of the chief executive officer, other personnel may be designated by titles, such as "assistant vice president," "divisional vice president," "assistant treasurer" or "assistant controller" but only persons elected by the board of directors shall be deemed officers of the corporation.

37. Except as provided in employee benefit or incentive plans approved by the board of directors or the stockholders, the compensation of all officers of the corporation shall be fixed by the board of directors or by any committee of the board of directors as the board of directors designates.

38. The officers of the corporation shall hold office until their respective successors are chosen and qualified in their stead, or until they have resigned, retired or been removed in the manner hereinafter provided. Any officer elected or appointed by the board of directors may be removed at any time by the affirmative vote of a majority of the whole board of directors.

CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD.

39. When so designated by the board of directors, the chairman of the board shall be the chief executive officer of the corporation with the powers and duties hereinafter specified for such office. He shall preside at all meetings of the board of directors and shall perform such other duties as may be specified in the by-laws.

THE PRESIDENT.

40. When so designated by the board of directors, the president shall be the chief executive officer of the corporation with the powers and duties hereinafter specified for such office. When not serving as chief executive officer he shall have such powers and duties as may be specified in the by-laws, prescribed by the board of directors or delegated by the chief executive officer.

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER.

41. The chief executive officer may be either the chairman of the board or the president. The person so designated by the board of directors shall have the general and active management of the business, property and affairs of the corporation, subject to the control of the board of directors, and shall have the powers and perform the duties customarily exercised by the chief executive officer of a business corporation, including the authority to sign on behalf of the corporation deeds, leases, contracts, powers of attorney and other documents, and the duty to execute all directions and resolutions of the board of directors. He shall preside at all meetings of the stockholders, and shall perform such other duties as may be specified in the by-laws.

ALTERNATE PRESIDING OFFICER.

42. In the absence from any meeting of the stockholders or directors of the person designated in the by-laws to preside if present at such meeting, the chief executive officer, the chairman of the board or the president (in that order of precedence) shall preside at such meeting.

THE VICE PRESIDENT.

43. Whenever there is not more than one vice president, the vice president shall perform all such duties and exercise all such powers as may be delegated to him by the chief executive officer, and such vice president shall in the event of the absence or disability of the chief executive officer perform such duties and exercise such powers of such officers as may be designated by the board of directors.

44. If provision shall be made by the board of directors for more than one vice president, each such vice president, including any designated as executive vice president, shall perform such duties and exercise such powers as may be delegated to him by the chief executive officer, and shall perform such further duties and exercise such further powers as the board of directors shall prescribe; and in the absence or disability of the president his duties shall be performed and his powers shall be exercised by one or more vice presidents to the extent designated by the chief executive officer or by the board of directors.

THE SECRETARY.

45. (a) The secretary shall attend all sessions of the board of directors and all meetings of the stockholders and record all votes and minutes of all proceedings in a book to be kept for that purpose; and shall perform like duties for other committees as required. He shall give, or cause to be given, notice of all meetings of the stockholders and of the board of directors, and shall perform such other duties as shall be prescribed by the board of directors or chief executive officer.

(b) Such assistant secretary or assistant secretaries as may be appointed by the board of directors, shall, to the extent authorized by the board of directors, participate with the secretary and assist him in the performance of his duties, and exercise all the powers and discharge all the duties of the secretary to the extent prescribed by the board of directors; and in the event of the absence or disability of the secretary or any assistant secretary the duties of the secretary or of such assistant secretary shall be performed by the assistant secretary designated by the chief executive officer or the board of directors.

THE TREASURER.

46. (a) The treasurer shall perform such duties in relation to the finances of the corporation as shall be prescribed by the board of directors, and in relation to such duties shall be subject to the supervision and direction of the board of directors and the chief executive officer, as circumstances may require.

(b) Such assistant treasurer or assistant treasurers as may be appointed by the board of directors shall, to the extent authorized by the board of directors, participate with the treasurer and assist him in the performance of his duties, and exercise all the powers and discharge all the duties of the treasurer to the extent prescribed by the board of directors; and in the event of the absence or disability of the treasurer or of any assistant treasurer, the duties of the treasurer or of such assistant treasurer shall be performed by the assistant treasurer designated by the chief executive officer or the board of directors.

THE CONTROLLER.

47. It shall be the duty of the controller, subject and pursuant to the authority of the board of directors and of the chief executive officer, to provide for the keeping of full and accurate records and accounts of receipts, disbursements and all other transactions of the corporation, to make proper report thereof as required and to perform such other duties as may be designated by the board of directors or the chief executive officer.

VACANCIES.

48. If the office of any director or officer becomes vacant by reason of death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, removal from office or otherwise, or if the authorized number of directors be increased, the resulting vacancy or vacancies may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office, although less than a quorum, provided notice of intention to fill a vacancy in the board shall have been included in the notice of the meeting. The persons so chosen shall hold office until the next annual election and until their successors are duly elected and qualified, unless sooner displaced. The provisions of this by-law with respect to the filling of vacancies in the office of any director are subject to the provisions of Section 10 of Article Fourth of the certificate of incorporation.

DUTIES OF OFFICERS MAY BE DELEGATED.

49. In case of the absence of any officer of the corporation, or for any other reason that the board of directors may deem sufficient, the board may delegate, for the time being, the powers or duties, or any of them, of such officer to any other officer, or to any directors.

CERTIFICATES OF STOCK.

50. The certificates of stock of the corporation shall be numbered and entered in the books of the corporation as they are issued. They shall exhibit the holder's name and number of shares and shall be signed by the chairman of the board or the president or a vice president and by the treasurer or an assistant treasurer or the secretary or an assistant secretary. Where a certificate is countersigned by (1) a transfer agent other than the corporation or its employee, or (2) a registrar other than the corporation or its employee, the signature of any such officers may be facsimile. In case any officer or officers who shall have signed or whose facsimile signature shall have been used on any such certificate or certificates shall cease to be such officer or officers of the corporation because of death, resignation or otherwise, before such certificate or certificates shall have been delivered by the corporation, such certificate or certificates may be issued and delivered as though the person who signed such certificate or certificates or whose facsimile signature shall have been used thereon had not ceased to be an officer of the corporation.

TRANSFERS OF STOCKS.

51. Transfers of stock shall be made on the books of the corporation only by the person named in the certificate or by attorney, lawfully constituted in writing, and upon surrender of the certificate therefor.

FIXING RECORD DATE.

52. The board of directors shall have power to fix in advance a date, not exceeding sixty nor less than ten days preceding the date of any meeting of stockholders or the date for the payment of any dividend, or the date for the allotments of rights, or the date when any redemption, selection for redemption, or change or conversion or exchange of capital stock shall go into effect, or the date in connection with obtaining such consent, as a record date for the determination of the stockholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, any such meeting and any adjournment thereof, or entitled to receive payment of any such dividend, or to any such allotment of rights, or to exercise the rights in respect of any such redemption, selection for redemption, change, conversion or exchange of capital stock, or to give the consent of stockholders for any purpose or for the purpose of any other lawful action and in such case only such stockholders as shall be stockholders of record on the date so fixed shall be entitled to such notice of, and to vote at, such meeting and any adjournment thereof, or to receive payments of such dividend, or to receive such allotment of rights, or to exercise such rights, or to give such consent, as the case may be, notwithstanding any transfer of any stock on the books of the corporation after any such record date fixed as aforesaid; and such power shall be applicable to both preferred and common stocks together or to either separately.

REGISTERED STOCKHOLDERS.

53. The corporation shall be entitled to treat the holder of record of any share or shares of stock as the holder in fact thereof, and accordingly shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such share on the part of any other person, whether or not it shall have express or other notice thereof, save as expressly provided by the laws of Delaware.

LOST CERTIFICATE.

54. Any person claiming a certificate of stock to be lost, stolen or destroyed shall furnish the corporation with such evidence of the ownership thereof and of such loss, theft or destruction as shall be satisfactory to the corporation and shall, unless the board of directors shall waive the same, give to the corporation a bond of indemnity with one or more sureties satisfactory to the board, in such an amount as the board may require, to indemnify the corporation against any claim that may be made against it on account of the alleged loss, theft or destruction of any such certificate or the issuance of a new certificate in lieu thereof; and thereupon the board or any officer or officers designated by the board may cause a new certificate to be issued of the same tenor and for the same number of shares as the one alleged to be lost, stolen or destroyed.

INSPECTION OF BOOKS.

55. To the extent permitted by law, the directors shall determine from time to time whether, and if allowed, when and under what conditions and regulations, the accounts and books of the corporation (except such as may by statute be specifically open to inspection) or any of them shall be open to the inspection of the stockholders, and the stockholders' rights in this respect are and shall be restricted and limited accordingly.

CHECKS.

56. Notes of the corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers and checks or demands for money shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the board of directors may from time to time designate.

FISCAL YEAR.

57. The fiscal year shall begin the first day of January in each year.

DIVIDENDS.

58. Dividends upon the capital stock of the corporation, when earned, may be declared by the board of directors at any regular or special meeting.

Before payment of any dividend or making any distribution of profits, there may be set aside out of the surplus or net profits of the corporation such sum or sums as the directors from time to time, in their absolute discretion, think proper as a reserve fund to meet contingencies or for equalizing dividends, or for repairing or maintaining any property of the corporation, or for such other purpose as the directors shall think conducive to the interests of the corporation.

NOTICES.

59. Whenever under the provisions of these by-laws notice is required to be given to any director, officer or stockholder, it shall not be construed necessarily to mean personal notice, but such notice may be given in writing, either personally or by mail by depositing the same in the post office or a letter-box, in a post-paid, sealed wrapper, addressed to such stockholder, officer or director at his, her or its address as appears on the books of the corporation, or, in default of other address, to such director, officer or stockholder at the General Post Office in the City of Wilmington, Delaware, or in the General Post Office in the City of New York, and such notice shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be thus mailed; provided, however, that in the case of any stockholder or director who is an officer or employee of this corporation and engaged actively in the discharge of his duties at one of the offices or places of business of this corporation, it shall be a sufficient mailing of notice to his address to mail such notice to such officer or employee at the office or place of business aforesaid. Any stockholder, director or officer may waive any notice required to be given under these by-laws.

AMENDMENTS.

60. These by-laws of the corporation may be altered or amended by the affirmative vote of a majority of the stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote thereat, at any regular meeting of the stockholders, without notice of the proposed alteration or amendment, and at any special meeting of the stockholders, if notice of the proposed alteration or amendment be contained in the notice of the meeting, or by the affirmative vote of a majority of the board of directors at any regular meeting of the board, or at any special meeting of the board, provided notice of the proposed amendment shall have been included in the notice of such regular or special meeting. At no time shall the by-laws be amended so as to be inconsistent with the rights of the holders of the preferred stock set forth in Section 10 of Article Fourth of the certificate of incorporation.

EMERGENCY PROVISIONS.

61. In the event of a disaster of sufficient severity to prevent the business and affairs of the corporation from being managed and its corporate powers from being exercised by the board of directors in accordance with the foregoing by-laws, whether by reason of multiple deaths or incapacity of directors and officers, destruction of property, failure of communications or other catastrophe, then, notwithstanding any other provision of the by-laws, the following provisions shall apply:

(a) An emergency meeting or meetings of the board of directors or of the surviving members thereof shall be called by the chief executive officer, if available, and otherwise by one or more directors; such meetings to be held at such times and places and upon such notice, if any, as the person or persons calling the meeting shall deem proper. The board may take any action at such meetings which it deems necessary and appropriate to meet the emergency.

(b) Vacancies in the board of directors shall be filled as soon as practicable in the manner specified in Article 48 of the by-laws. In filling vacancies consideration shall be given to senior officers of the corporation.

(c) The presence of the smallest number of directors permitted by law to constitute a quorum, but not less than three, shall be sufficient for the transaction of business at emergency meetings of the board of directors, except that if there be less than three surviving directors, the surviving director or directors, although less than a quorum, may fill vacancies in the board.

(d) The by-laws may be amended by the board of directors without notice of the proposed amendment being given in the notice of the meeting.

(e) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the board of directors are authorized to make all necessary determinations of fact regarding the extent and severity of the disaster and the availability of members thereof; to designate and replace officers, agents and employees of the corporation and otherwise provide for continuity of management; and to elect a chairman, adopt rules of procedure, and fill vacancies.

(f) The emergency powers provided in this by-law 61 shall be in addition to any powers provided by law.
